Spotlight on Jafra Waste Management Teams

One of the most important missions for the Jafra Foundation is to keep the Palestinian refugee camps and neighborhoods clean and safe for children to play, as well as for the inhabitants' health in general. In February, we wanted to honor all our team members working tirelessly everyday in Lebanon and Syria.

Jafra Produces and Distributes Food

Over its different locations in Lebanon, Jafra keeps teaching women the principles of food production for large quantities. While training, cooking recipes are made and then monthly distributed to some selected neighborhood's families.

Football for All

Football is a well appreciated sport at the Jafra Foundation. The several teams are actively training and are always happy to compete partners' organizations' teams. In February, we welcomed a brand new team in Burj el Barajneh camp; the Jafra first female football team.

Children Needing Special Attention are Welcome in Qudsaya

Sometimes, some children need a bit more attention than others to enter the school system and keep learning as their classmates do. Qudsaya Jafra center always puts an eye on them for a more specific guidance. Working with kindness and positivity generally gives back self-confidence to our young fellows so they thrive.

Honoring our Language with our Storyteller Help

Jafra wants underline the importance of reading and keeping the Arabic language in use not only on the 21th of February but every day. Jafra storyteller is part of the actions to invite young people staying in touch with their language and attracting them to read.
