Jafra for Relief and Youth Development

Despite the overwhelming obstacles, the children of the camps, in Jafra Foundation's education program have achieved something truly extraordinary. Against all odds, they've passed their exams, earned their diplomas, and secured a future filled with hope. With a 90% success rate, these young heroes, along with their devoted teachers, have proven that even in the darkest times, education can be a beacon of light.

We are incredibly proud of these brave children and their families, whose unwavering support has helped them overcome so much. We also deeply thank the teachers, facilitators, and donors who have stood by them, ensuring that they have the chance to dream of a better tomorrow. Jafra believes in every child's right to education and protection.

The number of students enrolled in the Jafra educational program in Syria is 1,200 students.

The Summer Club for Children is one of the most important permanent programs on the agenda of Jafra Centers in Syria. Year by year, the Foundations's staff accumulates extensive experience in managing this program. This year, the summer club includes various interactive and motor activities that combine education and entertainment, ensuring that children have a summer full of learning and fun through curricula that help them develop their skills and enhance their intellectual and physical abilities.

The National Awareness Program sessions continue in Jafra centers in Syria, where children learn about their national history, material and intellectual heritage, the geography of Palestine with its cities and villages, the meanings of the colors of the Palestinian flag, and the necessity of preserving national identity in the face of attempts to eliminate the existence of the Palestinian people.

A New Victory for the Jafra Football Team - Shatila Camp
